Learn more about the Walnut Creek Seniors' Club

Ready to kick-start your retirement? Join the Walnut Creek Seniors' Club. You'll discover exciting recreational, social and volunteer opportunities. Visit the Civic Park Community Center, a place for active adults, age 50 and better, where a dynamic, successful recreation program flourishes with more than 2,500 members.

The Seniors Club, a non-profit organization with an Advisory Board and elected officers, publishes a monthly newsletter to keep members current on special events, classes, services and travel opportunities.

Annual dues for January thru December are $15. Members enjoy discounts on special events, savings on local and international trips. Free social services for financial counseling, blood pressure checks, medical insurance counseling, income tax preparation, will preparation and legal advice are available. Call 943-5851 for information.
