

Be prepared in your car

When an earthquake or other emergency occurs, you may not be at home. Keep these items in a backpack in your car so you will be ready for whatever comes your way.

Checklist for Suggested Emergency Supplies to Keep in Your Car

- Antibacterial wipes
- Battery radio and batteries
- City maps
- Deodorant
- Diapers, baby food, formula and bottles if you have a baby in the family
- Dollars & quarters ($100 total, in $0.25, $1 and $5 increments)
- Dust mask (N95)
- Ear plugs
- Eyeglasses/reading glasses
- Feminine hygiene products
- Fire extinguisher
- First Aid book
- First Aid kit
- Flashlight (hand-cranked or solar if possible)
- Goggles
- Heat pak/cold pak
- Household keys & car keys, extra set
- Insurance information
- Leatherman/multi-use tool
- Light sticks
- Lip balm
- Manual can opener
- Matches, waterproof
- Paper towels or old towels
- Pet food, leash, dishes if you have a pet
- Phone numbers of family members
- Plastic bags
- Prescription meds (3-day supply)
- Rain poncho
- Snacks
- Space blanket
- Sturdy shoes
- Sunscreen
- Sweatshirt or other warm clothing
- Tissue
- Toilet paper
- Tool kit (screwdriver, pliers, hammer, crescent wrench, small pry bar)
- Toothpaste and toothbrushes
- Umbrella
- Upset stomach medication
- Vitamin C
- Water
- Water purification kit
- Whistle
- Work gloves, leather

Learn more at www.walnut-creek.org/CERT

Follow us on Facebook!
facebook.com/walnutcreekcert

